One of my favourite books is Northern Lights. It's written by òf Philip Pullman. It's a fantasy story set in Oxford. It's the story of a girl—Lyra. She tries to save some children who have been kidnapped by a strange woman calling Mrs Coulter. I like the book for many reasons. The author has created ^ an amazing fantasy world.

I really like Lyra. I prefer this book to the Harry Potter stories, because I think this book is little childish than less

书面表达(共二题,计 25 分)

(A) One possible version:

Dear David,

I'm sorry to hear that you have difficulty in going to sleep. As it happens, I listened to a lecture on how to sleep well the other day. The speaker made the following suggestions.

You need to form good habits, that is to say, you should go to bed at a fixed time, and not too late. You shouldn't exercise a lot just before bedtime, because this will excite you. In addition, you should avoid drinking coffee, alcohol, or anything containing caffeine as caffeine prevents you from going to sleep.

So much for the advice. I hope it works for you. I look forward to your reply.

Yours,
Li Hua

(B) One possible version:

The idea of living on the moon is no longer science fiction. However, there will be disadvantages to living there as well as advantages.

On the positive side, people will be able to escape from the earth's overcrowded cities, and will have wonderful clear views of the earth and stars.

On the other hand, the moon is an unfriendly place for humans. First of all, people will have to wear special suits and if their equipment fails, they'll probably die. Secondly, they'll have to get used to being weightless. Finally, they'll probably miss the plants and wildlife that exist on the earth.

In all, the moon might be the ideal place for a holiday or for scientists to carry out research, but not for ordinary people to live on.

6. M: Shall we take a taxi or drive?

W: Let's leave our car here and take the train into the city.

M: Good idea. We won't have to worry about parking.

Q: How are they going to the city?

7. W: Excuse me, do you need any help?

M: Oh, yes, I do. I've been walking around in circles. I can't find the train station.

W: Oh, well, I'm going in that direction. You can walk with me. I'll show you where it is.

Q: What will the man do next?

8. M: So, Ann, which classes do you enjoy the most in college?

W: Well, I think my language classes are probably my favourite right now.

M: Which ones are you taking?

W: I'm studying French, Spanish and German right now.

Q: How many language classes is the woman taking?

9. M: Hello. Can I speak to Mr Zhang?

W: Sorry, there's no Mr Zhang at this number.

M: The number I have here is 8345-992.

W: Our number is 8345-299.

Q: Why can't the man speak to Mr Zhang?

10. M: Fast Taxi Service. Can I help you?

W: Ah yes, please. I'd like a taxi and I'm at the City Museum.

M: Right. Could you just wait in the entrance hall, please? I'll be right over. Let me see... I'll be there at ten to eleven.

Q: What time will the taxi arrive?

(B) Please listen to the following two long dialogues, and each dialogue is followed by several questions. Choose the best answer to each question according to the dialogue you have heard. Each dialogue and questions will be read TWICE.

M: Good morning. I wonder if you could help me. I'm looking for a book called Computing Made Easy.

W: It'll be over there in the Science and Technology section.

M: I've looked but I can't see it on the shelves.

W: Let me just check on the computer... Ah, yes. No, I'm sorry, we don't have it in stock, but I can order it for you.

M: Oh, good. How much is it? And how long will it take?

W: £12.99. Oh, sorry, it's £13.99. It'll take about a week or ten days.

M: That's fine. Thanks. Please order one for me.

Qs: 11. Where does this dialogue take place?

12. How much will the man pay?

Dialogue B

W: Hi, I'm Emma, and you're Gary, is that right?

M: Yeah, that's right.

W: Have a seat. Now, tell us a bit about yourself, Gary.

M: Thanks. Well, it depends on what you want to know. Let me see... I'm 20, and I'm a student at university here.

W: What are you studying?

M: Physics.

W: Wow, what kind of things do you like doing in your free time?

M: Well, I'm really into heavy metal—I play the guitar in a band. That takes up most of my spare time.

W: So, are you really interested in renting my house?

M: Yes. I like it. By the way, I think I've got a good sense of humour, and I haven't got any bad habits!

W: Great. Thanks for coming, Gary. I'll let you know tomorrow.

M: Right... Bye.

Qs: 13. What does the man study?

14. How does the man spend his spare time?

15. Who's Emma according to the dialogue?

Part III Passage

Please listen to the following passage, and fill in the blanks according to the passage you have heard with NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS. The passage will be read TWICE.

M: And now it's time for our regular weekly guide for visitors to the city. My name's Paul Smith. Here are some suggestions. Well, first of all, for those of you who don't know Doncaster at all, the best way to start is with one of the open-top bus tours. You get a wonderful view of the most interesting sights, such as Doncaster Markets, and at the same time you'll hear all about the town's history from the guide. For those of you interested in art, there's an interesting exhibition this week at the Doncaster Museum and Art Gallery by local painters.

About sport, there's a swimming pool, which is open from 9 o'clock every day until 6:00, or, if you prefer your sport sitting down, Doncaster Rovers football team are playing this Sunday, kick-off at 2 o'clock, and seats are still available for 15 pounds.
