书面表达(共二题,计 25 分)

(A) One possible version:

I was glad when my phone started to ring. I was waiting at the station for Fred. He wasn’t on the train that he mentioned in his email, or on the one after that. I was bored—two hours is a long time to wait for someone. So I felt happy when I saw that it was Fred’s number. But when I answered, he sounded angry! How could he be angry? Soon I became cross, too. But you know what happened? He decided to drive to see me in his car. But I never got the email that told me this, so he was sitting outside my house!

(B) One possible version:

To attract young people in the first place we must supply them with interesting magazines and books. I suggest a poster outside announcing subjects of interest, such as music, films, video, football and so on. Magazines should be sold at a special introductory price for first-time customers. Once they’ve come into the shop they’ll then see the other attractions.

Also advertise on the local radio and in the press about discounts for young people on all books in the next month.

Operate an exchange programme where they can trade old books for new ones at a special price.

Install a Youth section in the shop where books and magazines interesting to them are on show. Invite them to come and sit in the comfortable chairs provided, to meet their friends and look through books and magazines.

2017 年春季测试八级试题听力部分(录音原文)

Part I Sentences

Please listen to the following five sentences and fill in the blanks according to the sentences you've heard with ONLY ONE WORD. Each sentence will be read TWICE.

1. We have to check out soon because we're going to catch our plane.
2. Do you think you'll be taking another vacation in Yellowstone again?
3. I have a class from three to four, but I can come forward at a quarter past four.
4. I wonder if I could call you again in a month's time just to see if you're still interested.
5. Weddings in those villages take place traditionally after the farmers have sold their harvest.

Part II Dialogues

(A) Please listen to the following five mini-dialogues, and each dialogue is followed by a question. Choose the best answer to each question according to the dialogue you've heard. Each dialogue and question will be read TWICE.

6. M: I've been in a band for months. On the weekends, we play from dusk till dawn. What do you think of my new job?
W: You'll never make it. The city is cruel, and there are too many bands out there that are also trying to make it.
Q: What does the man do?
7. M: Shall we take a bus or taxi to the meeting place?
W: We'd better take the subway. It's almost impossible to find a taxi during the rush hour. And the buses are always too crowded.
M: Maybe you're right. Let's take the subway.
Q: How does the woman suggest they should go?
8. M: Do you have any special plans for the weekend?
W: Yes. I'm going to the concert on Friday evening and on Sunday I'm going to the art exhibition with Mr Anderson. There are some new paintings about Mexico.
Q: Where's the woman going on Sunday?
9. M: I think there's a mistake in our bill. We didn't have dinner here last night.
W: I'm sorry, sir. Here's the bill from the hotel restaurant. It's got your signature on it.
M: But that's not my signature. I'd like to speak to the manager.
Q: Who probably is the woman?
10. M: What time is your sister arriving?
W: She planned to leave in the morning. She was supposed to catch the noon bus but called to say she missed it, so she plans to take the 2:30 pm bus, which will get her here at about dinnertime.
Q: When'll the woman's sister arrive?

(B) Please listen to the following two long dialogues, and there'll be two or three questions after each dialogue. Please answer the questions briefly according to the dialogue you've heard. Each dialogue and the questions will be read TWICE.

Dialogue A

W: Hi, Mark. Tomorrow is Saturday. What are you going to do?

M: My family are going on an outing. I wonder what the weather will be like tomorrow.

W: I heard the weather forecast over the radio. It'll be fine and dry, though with clouds increasing during the afternoon.

M: That's all right. What about the temperature?

W: It's going to be another cool day. The temperature will rise to 23 degrees by midday and then fall off slightly to about 20 degrees.

M: Great! It'll be a good day for an outing.

Questions:

11. How does the woman know the weather forecast?

12. What will the temperature be by midday on Saturday?

Dialogue B

W: Excuse me, Mr Brown. May I speak to you, please?

M: Yes, but only for a few minutes. I have an important meeting at 3:00.

W: I don't think it'll take long. I hear that you have an English Teaching Certificate evening course. I need your permission to attend it.

M: Have you taken my test before?

W: Not yet. That's why I'm here. My friend Jack told me that you can give me permission without the test.

M: That's correct. Have you had any experience in language teaching?

W: I'm working in a language school, but I've had no formal training. I'm keen to learn and to get the certificate.

M: Good. But I really don't have time to make a decision now. You have to fill in this application form first and then you need my signature. I'll let you know the day after tomorrow.

W: Thanks a lot. I really appreciate it.

Questions:

13. Who told the woman to see the man?

14. Where's the woman working now?

15. When'll the man give the woman a reply?

Part III Passage

Please listen to the following passage, and fill in the blanks according to the passage you've heard with NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS. The passage will be read TWICE.

Good evening, everyone. I have the final programme for our expedition to Costa Rica. I'd like to tell you about the three different projects that we're running there.

Before I go on, though, let me tell you that we'll be leaving on the 6th of April and we'll be coming back on the 10th of June instead of the 20th of July. I hope that won't be a problem for anyone.

Now, the first project involves cleaning up the beaches in the east of the country. They're the home to some rare species of turtles and we're going there to do our best to protect them. The second project is in the capital, San José. There we'll be working in the national zoo, planting trees in a new park to improve the animals' natural habitats. The final project is in one of the national parks. This is an area of rainforest, which was destroyed, but now the Costa Rican government wants to restore it. We'll be planting trees and recording the animals and plant species that we find there.

Has anyone got any questions on any of that? Right, next ...
